SLED DOG CERTIFICATE PASSPORT

RULES:

CKC Sled Dog Certificates.

I AIM

- To certify a qualified sled dog under the auspices of The Canadian Kennel Club, to encourage participation and to recognize a dog's abilities such as, desire, intelligence, agility, strength, attitude toward master and team workmanship in Sled Dog events.
- To have all races governed by the current edition of the International Sled Dog Racing Association (I.S.D.R.A.) rules.

II REQUIREMENTS

- The Sled Dog Certificate shall be for all sled dogs who have not won the title of S.D.
  - The requirements for the S.D. shall be:
    - Total accumulation of at least 50 miles, in not less than three successfully completed races.
    - The Sled Dog Excellent Certificate shall be for all sled dogs who have won the S.D. title.
  - The requirements for the S.D.X. shall be:
    - Total accumulation of at least 100 miles, in not less than three successfully completed races.
    - Mileage for S.D. certificate shall not be included.
  - The Sled Dog Unlimited Certificate shall be for all sled dogs who have won the S.D.X. title.
- The requirements for the S.D.U. shall be:
  - Total accumulation of at least 300 miles, in not less than three successfully completed races.
  - Mileage for S.D.X. certificates shall not be included.
- Satisfactory completion of the above races shall be determined by the Chief Timer or Chief Marshal and completed according to the current edition of the I.S.D.R.A. rules. A dog which runs a race shall be credited for the appropriate mileage in an official CKC 'Sled Dog Race Mileage Card'. Any owner or driver of a dog can submit the completed, and duly signed official race card, along with appropriate fee to the CKC, and request the SD, SDX, or SDU title to be added to the dog's official records upon completion of the qualifications for the title.

III TITLES AND CERTIFICATES

- In this section the term 'successfully completed race' means one or more heats in which the total heat times of the team is not more than 25% greater than the total average heat times of the first three placements.
- The CKC will permit the use of the letters S.D. signifying Sled Dog, to be used after the name of each dog that has met the requirements for that title as hereafter provided.

Requirements

- The dog must receive credit for not less than three successfully completed races held under these rules, and apply in writing to the CKC with the Sled Dog Race Mileage Card.
- Total accumulation of at least 50 miles.
- The dog must be registered individually in the CKC records.
- The CKC will permit the use of the letters S.D.X. signifying Sled Dog Excellent, to be used after the name of each dog that has met the requirements for that title as hereafter provided.

Requirements

- The dog must receive credit for not less than three successfully completed races held under these rules, and apply in writing to the CKC with the Sled Dog Race Mileage Card.
- Total accumulation of at least 100 miles.
- The dog must have completed the requirements for his S.D. before credits for the S.D.X. are counted.
- The CKC will permit the use of the letters S.D.U. signifying Sled Dog Unlimited, to be used after the name of each dog that has met the requirements for that title as hereafter provided.

Requirements

- The dog must receive credit for not less than three successfully completed races held under these rules, and apply in writing to the CKC with the Sled Dog Race Mileage Card.
- Total accumulation of at least 300 miles.
- The dog must have completed the requirements for his S.D.X. before credits for the S.D.U. are counted.

IV CHIEF TIMER AND CHIEF MARSHAL

- The Chief Timer and Chief Marshal for the races should be fully conversant with the current edition of the I.S.D.R.A. rules.
- The Chief Marshal shall have full control of the race and during the day of the race must be available on the grounds.
- Members of the race-giving club, executive and race committees may run their dogs in the race. The Chief Timer or Chief Marshal's immediate family may run but the card shall not be signed by a member of the same household.

V RACE ENTRIES

- All entries must be received by the race secretary before the closing of entries and in the case of post entries, before the first heat has started.
- Entries may be limited in number at the option of the race-giving club.
- No dog or bitch under one year of age may hold a 'Sled Dog Race Mileage Card'.
- Bitches in season may compete.
- Each dog or bitch applying for race mileage will be identified and/or marked prior to the first heat.
